

RACCONTI MEDITERRANEI 3

an international school for students of constructivist psychology and psychotherapy

23 - 30 October 2011 Brno Czech Republic

Following our successful summer schools in Italy in 2007 and Greece in 2008, we are delighted to invite you to the 2011 'autumn school' for European students of constructivist psychology and psychotherapy.

The autumn school (RM3) will be held from 23rd – 30th October 2011 in Brno, Czech Republic, at the Hotel Slapnice used by the university of Brno.

Taught sessions run each day from 10.00 – 14.00, with afternoons free for relaxation and exploration.

Evenings will feature a range of optional and student-led activities.

The theme of the school will be

“Skills and Strategies for the Inquiring Person”

Keynote sessions:

Coaching methodologies for the Inquiring person

led by Prof Dusan Stojnov

Narratives as Paths to Inquiry

led by Dr Massimo Giliberto

Inquiring Conversations – relationships as works-in-progress

led by Mary Frances

Too Vague or Too Dogmatic

– working with over-loose or over-tight constructs

led by Mirek Filip

Prices

Full board and lodging per person costs 315 € for accommodation in single rooms and 285 € for accommodation in double rooms.

Transportation

The schools of constructivist psychotherapy in Belgrade and in Padua will be making arrangements for group travel for their students. Otherwise, travel is based on individual arrangements. There are direct flights to Brno from London Stansted (Ryanair), or a variety of options for flying indirect. Brno is also accessible from Prague and Bratislava by train.

Contact

If you have any queries or need further information please contact us

Dusan Stojnov stojnovi@eunet.yu
Massimo Giliberto m.giliberto@iol.it
Mary Frances mary.frances@virgin.net